Katelynn Vallee shows grand champ

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

A big, black white faced steer shown by Katelynn Vallee was named the grand champion steer at Elk Point 4-H Multi Club's Achievement Day on Friday, with Ashley Bristow's growthy Charolais-cross steer taking reserve honours.

Katelynn received the Elk Point Co-op banner and Ashley the Prairie Tech banner after their steers were chosen in the final round of judging from a field of six that advanced from the preliminary conformation classes. Kayla Gibson, Wyatt Heathcote, Jessica Wirsta and Leanna Gibson also showed steers in the final round. Al and Becky Fenton were this year's judges.

In the grooming and showmanship competitions that preceded the conformation classes, Katelynn won the senior showmanship and Ashley the junior showmanship, both for Clayton Orr Memorial halters, with Ashley also earning the Home Town Grocers trophy for first in junior grooming.

Showmanship honours (award sponsors in brackets) also went to Nolan Vogel, second junior (Dallan and Sherry Wandler), Brett Ockerman, first intermediate (Shady Lawn Stock Farms halter), Nicole Tymofichuk, second intermediate (Don and Diane Heathcote), and Alanna Ockerman, second senior (David and Amore Garnett-Bennett).

Grooming winners also included Nolan Vogel, second junior (DOG Inspection Services), Wyatt Heathcote, first intermediate (George and Diana Anderson), Brett Ockerman, second intermediate (K-Cow Ranch), Alanna Ockerman, first senior (Elk Point Insurance) and Janice Tymofichuk, second senior (Irvine Transport).

In the judging class, where members placed four steers and gave their reasons for placing them in that order, Small Engines project member Lyon Cueva placed first in junior (Cal's Hardware), Ashley Bristow, second junior (Heather and Travis Desilets), Alexis Bristow, first intermediate (Kurek Farms), Tyler Ockerman, second intermediate (True Rod Welding), Darren Tymofichuk, first senior (Lakeland Tire Craft) and Kayla Gibson, second senior (FBC Vermilion).

Restored to its former glory, a 1958 Edsel once owned by the late Johnny Oryschuk drew much more than passing glances from the crowd at Saturday's Elk Point Auto Club Show and Shine. The gleaming yellow-and-white hardtop earned the most votes in the Antique category, and big smiles from Joyce Oryschuk, who owned the Edsel prior to its purchase and restoration by Edsel collector Gary Fakely of Ardrossan.

Fakeley, who grew up in the Lindbergh area and remembered the car back in its newer days, said it took "a lot of time and a lot of money" to bring back its showroom-fresh appearance. As a finishing touch, he added 'Joyce' in swirling script on the Continental kit on the extended bumper.

A total of 36 vehicles, including a number shown by club members that weren't included in the voting, lined Main Street on Saturday afternoon, bringing back lots of memories for the older viewers.

Heckler charged with resisting arrest

By Cst. John Spaans
Elk Point RCMP
Detachment

During the early morning hours of May 29, Elk Point RCMP came across a fight in front of Slinger's Pub in Elk Point. The parties were separated without further incident. However, when members were dealing with the disturbance, a bystander began yelling at the RCMP members and challenged them to fight. The male was told that he was under arrest but pulled away from the arresting officer. The male continued to resist members by pushing and fighting. During the skirmish, the male attempted to grab an officer's Taser. The male was eventually subdued and brought to jail. The Elk Point male has been charged with two counts of assaulting a peace officer and one count of attempting to disarm a police officer.

Noise complaint

On May 26 at 10 p.m., a complaint was received regarding excessive noise from a residence in Elk Point. Members attended the scene and confirmed that the noise was indeed excessive. Because there had been previous complaints of loud noise from the residence, the 27-year-old homeowner was charged with mischief and is now required to attend the St. Paul Provincial Court.

Impaired driving

At 10:30 p.m. on May 27, Elk Point RCMP conducted a vehicle stop on Highway 897 in Frog Lake. The suspect vehicle had been stopped because it was driving on the highway without any taillights. When members made contact with the driver, it was determined that he was driving while under the influence of alcohol. The male driver was brought to the Elk Point Detachment where breath tests indicated a blood alcohol level over three times the legal limit. The 29-year-old Frog Lake male has been charged with impaired driving and driving with a blood alcohol level over 80 mg per cent.

Break and enter

On May 28, Elk Point RCMP received a complaint or a residential break and enter in Heinsburg. The offence had been committed sometime during the week while the homeowners were away. Suspects gained entry into the residence and stole a black cast iron pellet stove. Investigation has found that the break-in occurred on May 26 at approximately 6 p.m. Members are on the lookout for a grey older model short-box pickup truck. Investigation into this matter is ongoing.

The Elk Point RCMP encourages all members of the public to call if suspicious, concerning or unusual activity is noted at any time of the day.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Help needed on park project

To the Parents of Elk Point Children:

We are raising money to build a Water Spray Park here in Elk Point. For those unaware, the best way to describe a spray park is large sprinklers in different shapes and sizes with sensors activating the water flow. This park will be free for use by all in the community, young and old alike.

We have had great success with our fundraisers such as a bottle drive and an arrest-a-thon and have received generous donations from businesses and individuals alike. The community at large are very supportive of this project.

We wish our work was done and we could break ground now. However, we have more to do before we can celebrate the success of our fundraising campaign. We are a small group working very hard to bring this park to all of the kids in our own community. Here is where you come in. We need more help! We have a duck race coming up and need the raffle tickets to be sold. If you can help sell to friends and family, we would be so thankful. Those buying tickets do not need to be present to win. They don't even need to be from here. I have sold a number of tickets to out of town family.

We also need more people on our committee. We have some great ideas for future fundraisers. We need help executing them. We have a great time doing these activities. If you join us, you will enjoy the energy, enthusiasm, fun and creativity. You will feel good knowing that you helped bring this project to fruition much faster. Please, we need you!

Call me to get some ticket books to sell or to join our committee. Your kids will thank you for it.

Valerie Lazicki, 724-4552

WAY BACK WHEN...

Champions and class celebrations

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND THE ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 8 IN...

1985

Dwayne Vogel showed Elk Point's 4-H grand champion steer, while Leanne Drobot showed the reserve champion steer, Lyle Yuschyshyn the grand champion female and John Brooker the reserve champion female. Spring fever hit the chamber of commerce, lowering attendance to 16, and with both the president and vice president among those not attending, the secretary ran the meeting.

1990

Heinsburg's Class of 1990, five of 15 members together since kindergarten, vowed to "Never say goodbye" at their graduation exercises, where Henry Thomson was valedictorian. Four years after a three-hour special meeting on the topic, the great debate about whether the tourist booth should remain next to the RCMP monument, once again topped the chamber of commerce agenda, with a committee set up to look into potential sites.

1995

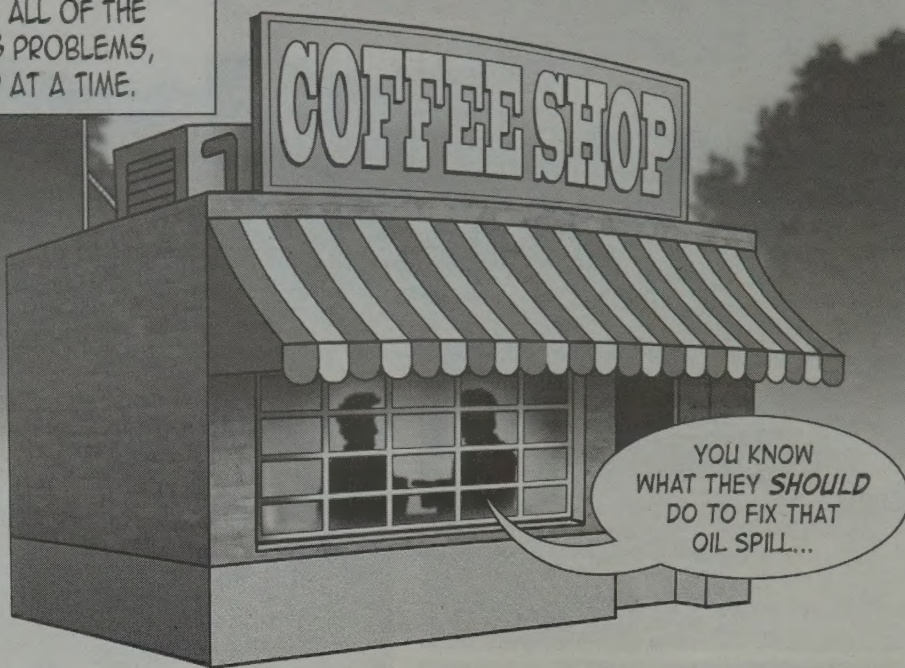

Elk Point's mill rate held the line for non-residential properties, and dropped 0.90 mill for residential property, with the mill rate bylaw passing all three readings at a meeting that focused largely on finance. Suzan Bartholomew, accompanied by Gabe Bayduza, led seniors on a 'sentimental journey' of World-War-II- vintage songs at a Seniors' Week gathering.

2000

Elk Point Emergency Services Golf Tournament really took off, raising an estimated $12,000 for STARS, and with STARS windbreakers going to the low score team, S and T Mobile Wash. Peter Danyluk showed the interclub grand champion steer at the St. Paul District Show and Sale, that steer selling for $2.25 per pound.

GUEST COLUMN

Seniors' Week 2010

Mary Anne Jablonski, Minister of Alberta Seniors and Community Supports, is quoted as saying: "Alberta is a vibrant and thriving province, thanks in large part to the seniors who help make our lives better every day. Each year, for the last 25 years, we celebrate Seniors' Week to acknowledge the valuable contributions of seniors to our communities and our province. The contributions of Alberta seniors are numerous. They are invaluable members of our families as well as active members, volunteers and leaders of our churches, community groups, charities and other organizations. The theme for Seniors' Week June 7 - 13, 2010, is "Celebrate the past, look to the future."

Speaking of celebrating the past and looking to the future, I would like to quote Paul Harvey.

"We tried so hard to make things better for our kids that we made it worse. For my grandchildren, I'd like better. I'd really like for them to know about hand-me-down clothes and home-made ice cream and leftover meatloaf sandwiches. I hope you learn humility by being humiliated, and that you learn honesty by being cheated. I hope you learn to make your own bed and mow the lawn and wash the car. And I really hope nobody gives you a brand new car when you are 16. It will be good if at least one time you can see puppies born and your old dog put to sleep. I hope you get a black eye fighting for something you believe in. I hope you have to share a bedroom with your younger brother. And it's all right if you have to draw a line down the middle of the room, but when he wants to crawl under the covers with you because he's scared, I hope you'll let him. I hope you have to walk uphill to school with your friends and live in a town where you can do it safely. On rainy days when you have to catch a ride, I hope you don't ask your driver to drop you two blocks away so you won't be seen riding with someone as uncool as your Mom. If you want a slingshot, I hope your Dad teaches you how to make one instead of buying one. I hope you learn to dig in the dirt and read books. When you learn to use computers, I hope you also learn to add and subtract in your head. I hope you get teased by your friends when you have your first crush on a girl, and when you talk back to your mother that you learn what ivory soap tastes like. May you skin your knee climbing a mountain, burn your hand on a stove and stick your tongue on a frozen flagpole. If you try beer I hope you don't like it, and if a friend offers you dope or a joint, I hope you realize that he is not your friend. I sure hope you make time to sit on a porch with your Grandpa and go fishing with your Uncle. May you feel sorrow at a funeral and joy during the holidays. I hope your mother punishes you when you throw a baseball through your neighbor's window and that she hugs you and kisses you at Christmas time when you give her a plaster mold of your hand. These things I wish for you- tough times and disappointments, hard work and happiness. To me, it's the only way to appreciate life."

Wise words from a grandfather.

Now what can we learn from our grandmothers? Grandma's Apron gives a hint.

"I don't think our kids know what an apron is. The principal use of Grandma's apron was to protect the dress underneath, but along with that, it served as a potholder for removing hot pans from the oven. It was wonderful for drying children's tears, and on occasion was even used for cleaning out dirty ears. From the chicken coop, the apron was used for carrying eggs, fussy chicks and sometimes half-hatched eggs to be finished in the warming oven. When company came, those aprons were ideal hiding places for shy kids. And when the weather was cold, Grandma wrapped it around her arms. Those big old aprons wiped many a perspiring brow, bent over the hot wood stove. Chips and kindling wood were brought into the kitchen in that apron. From the garden, it carried all sorts of vegetables. After the peas had been shelled, it carried out the hulls. In the fall, the apron was used to bring in apples that had fallen from the trees. When unexpected company drove up the road, it was surprising how much furniture that old apron could dust in a matter of seconds. When dinner was ready, Grandma walked out onto the porch, waved her apron, and the men knew it was time to come in from the fields to dinner. It will be a long time before someone invents something that will replace that "old-time apron" that served so many purposes."

So to all our seniors, thank you for being you and helping us learn what is important.

Jack and Jill Playschool students graduate, party

Playschool instructor Erin Mohyluk leads both groups of students in one of their favourite action songs, above, as they entertain parents and siblings.

Darryl Klatt holds one of his friendly sheep so the students can have a hands-on farm experience. During their tour of the farm, the students visited exotic chickens, peacocks, rabbits, ducks, pheasants, cattle, horses, goats and potbelly pigs, and enjoyed plenty of free time to play on swings, slides and trampoline as well as in the brand-new playhouse the Klatts have built this spring. A barbecue lunch was also on the program.

Elk Point Jack and Jill Playschool students held their graduation ceremonies and windup party last Thursday at the home of Tammy, Darryl, Shaylyn and Shyanne Klatt. Clouds threatened, but the rain held off until both the morning class, shown at left, and the afternoon class, above, had received their diplomas and year-end gifts on the porch of the Klatt's new playhouse and had headed home.

Elk Point and District Lions Club representative Keith Campbell presents tournament organizer Jason Fisher with $300 from the members of his team.

By VICKI BROOKER

Review Staff

Elk Point Emergency Services enjoyed beautiful weather for their annual golf tournament in support of STARS on June 2, with the big, red STARS helicopter setting down bright and early at the Elk Point Golf and Country Club for the good-news event.

Eighteen teams of golfers had their photos taken with the STARS chopper and the Elk Point Emergency Services rapid attack unit, before teeing off on their fist of two rounds. Before the chopper headed back to Edmonton, Emergency Services representatives presented STARS with an $8,000 donation, bringing the total from the tournaments to a whopping $143,000.

During the presentations at the end of the tournament, Keith Campbell of Elk Point and District Lions congratulated the EPES on "Another well-run tournament for a great cause," and noted that Lions International was one of the original sponsors that made STARS possible. "They jumped in with both feet to support something very much needed in our community and others like it in northern Alberta." The five golfers on his team contributed an additional $300, in addition to their entry fee, with Campbell presenting the cheque to tournament organizer Jason Fisher.

Another big donation came from Jay Duffee, who contributed his $395 winnings from the 50-50 draw.

Numerous draws for door prizes were made, with the major prize of a patio heater donated by Rona going to Robert Smith.

This year's tournament winners were the Rona team, with a 10 under par.

Teddies for toonies winners

INFORMATION SUBMITTED

In support of the Stollery and Alberta Children's Hospital Foundation, Elk Point ATB Financial raised over a $1,000 for the foundation through the sales of chocolates, a bake sale and a hot dog sale.

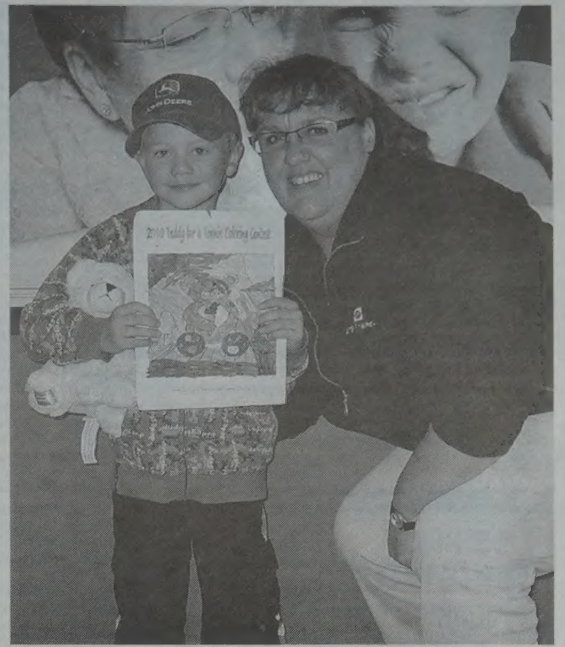

2010 marks the 11th year of ATB Financial's Teddy for a Toonie Campaign, which raises money province-wide for the Stollery and Alberta Children's Hospital Foundation.

Every year, passionate ATB Financial associates and engaged customers find creative and fun ways to come together to help Alberta kids. In its previous 10 years, the campaign has raised more than $3.2million for Alberta children's health and wellness.

This year, proceeds will support the expansion of the Stollery's pediatric emergency department and the creation of a Centre of Excellence for Childhood Cancer at the Alberta Children's Hospital.

"When you combine passionate ATB associates, great customers, a fun event and a wonderful cause, special things can happen", says Carla Ganske, senior customer service representative at ATB. "We're proud of the results and even prouder of all the people from our community that were involved." Elk Point Co-op, Hometown Grocers, Golden Loaf Bakery and the ATB staff all contributed to the hot dog sale.

Colby Havener won the small 10" "Nanuk the Polar Bear" though a Teddy for a Toonie coloring contest. He is pictured with Sheri Schmitt.

Watershed forum, information open house held in Elk Point

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

The North Saskatchewan Watershed Alliance held a downstream watershed planning forum in Elk Point on Thursday, June 3, focusing on the goals of maintaining and improving current water quality and quantity of the mainstream of the North Saskatchewan River.

Representatives of municipalities along the river and in the watershed area were on hand to give their input into the discussions.

Thursday evening, the NSWA hosted a town hall meeting to inform the public about the Alliance and its goals and objectives.

"We're developing a plan for the North Saskatchewan," executive director Dave Trew told the open house audience. "We've been working on this three years, and we're writing a plan this summer. We'll have a draft by fall and in the winter we'll be seeking feedback on it."

Trew explained that the NSWA is "a society, not a board or commission. We were formed in 2000, with EPCOR, TransAlta Utilities, Ducks Unlimited and interested members of the public involved. In 2003, MLA Lorne Taylor came up with Water for Life and identified the need for a provincial water strategy."

The watershed planning advisory committee involves 96 municipalities from the headwaters to the Saskatchewan border, "and anyone can join," Trew said. The board also includes representatives of various industries, Alberta Beef Producers and the City of Edmonton's drainage department, "and we've diversified quite a bit."

Among the NSWA projects have been a 'state of the watershed' report, numerous technical studies and their nearly completed watershed atlas, which is dedicated to local member Bill Fox. "It's very interesting work," Trew noted.

Water resources planning in Alberta ceased in 1995 due to budget cutbacks, and this "gap in planning" included the period when water-supply disasters in Walkerton, ON and North Battleford, SK, before Taylor took the initiative to get advisory councils going. Trew said.

The North Saskatchewan watershed includes 57,000 square kilometers of "very diverse" territory, with many ecological regions, and where man's effect varies greatly," Trew said. The watershed includes six sub-basins, which are "all quite unique. We're currently studying the Vermilion basin, but the plan is largely about the main stem. We're trying for the first time to integrate planning, land management and water management. We'll work on the main stem, then the sub-watersheds. Every basin has its own story. We have to put the whole picture together."

Trew indicated that less than three per cent of the water in the North Saskatchewan is "consumed and lost" during its journey through Alberta. "We are supposed to pass on 50 per cent of the water to Saskatchewan, but actually, 97 per cent is going through."

Overland runoff brings

"silt challenges" during high flow events, but generally, "there's a good supply of good quality water coming into Edmonton."

During the 1950s and 1960s, the river downstream of Edmonton was "grossly polluted" by industry and ineffectual wastewater treatment, but this has improved considerably over the years, Trew said.

He assured the audience that the NSWA is "not going to propose regulations to the province. Alberta Environment doesn't legislate land use, counties do. Our plan is totally to advise, and we hope to get enough political support" to keep the river in good condition.

The NSWA will hold more workshops and more forums in the fall and winter, Trew concluded. "It's a water resources plan and we will deliver it, making it as strong and feasible as we can."

Fishing Lake parents outraged by decision

By SHAUNA BURKE
Review Contributor

Parents from Fishing Lake Métis Settlement are expressing outrage at St. Paul Education Regional Division (SPERD) superintendent Glen Brodziak's decision to recommend that students from that community attend Heinsburg Community School instead of F. G. Miller School in Elk Point.

"Some of our students have been attending that school for four years now and have built up trust relationships with the teachers there and they have friends. Now to be told you are not welcome to come back into that school is a bit curious to me," said Ryck Chalifoux, chairman of Fishing Lake's council. While Fishing Lake has its own school, J.F. Dion, that school only goes up to Grade 6, following which its students have either attended school in Elk Point, Heinsburg or Bonnyville. At the last school board meeting, Brodziak recommended that Fishing

Lake students should to Heinsburg, a suggestion that did not go down well with Fishing Lake parents.

Ross Daniels, a Fishing Lake band councillor and a member of the Fishing Lake school board, questions Brodziak's comments from a St. Paul Journal article, stating that the programming in Heinsburg is "better suited" to meet the needs of Fishing Lake students. He noted that the children of the school board trustee from the area does not attend Heinsburg but is instead bused to F.G. Miller School.

SUNDAY, KNOWN BIBLICALLY as "The Sabbath" or Lord's Day, has been of considerable benefit to all mankind. It has its roots in Scripture. The Sabbath principle is embodied with the Ten Commandments, which were given for all men and for all time. Following the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, the first day of the week became a weekly reminder of His risen presence. Whereas the 7th day speaks of God's work in creation, the 1st day reminds us of His love in redemption. For more information contact: CLDA Box 1369, Picture Butte, AB, T0K 1V0.

Pee Wee Pumas news

By GLENDA BRISTOW
Review Contributor

The Pee Wee Pumas have had several games under their belts.

Traveling to Bonnyville on May 31 they played a very close game, losing by four runs. On June 2, the Pumas made tracks to St. Paul., playing a tough game against a bantam pitcher. Once their nerves settled, the girls starting hitting and making awesome plays, losing the game by six.

On Wednesday, June 2, the Pumas played host to St. Paul once again, coming face to face with their fast bantam pitcher. The third inning started their comeback, bringing in several runs, but again losing by a margin.

The Pee Wee girls have come a long way since the first game and practice. They are jelling as a team and finding their niche in the game. Sliding is something that we are still working on. The batting cage has given them a great offensive edge.

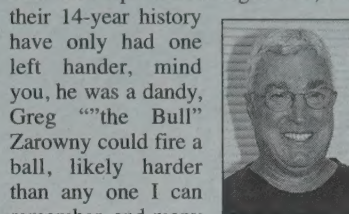

The girls venture into the Saskatchewan side on Monday, June 7, playing Pierceland. Until next time, see you at the diamonds.

Mosquitoes West blessed with lefties

How could a team be so blessed a to have three left-handed pitchers in their line up? The Midget Sox, in their 14-year history have only had one left hander, mind you, he was a dandy, Greg "the Bull" Zarowny could fire a ball, likely harder than any one I can remember, and many times he had the batter shaking in his boots when he delivered his fast ball, that had a natural curve coming in on the hands of the right handed batters. All they could only hope was to get a little piece of it. I remember one game in provincials in Wainwright when "the Bull" threw a no hitter until the bottom of the seventh, he walked a few guys but no one hit the ball until we made one fielding error on a bunt and lost the game by a score of 2 to 1, a real heartbreaker.

The team I'm talking about today, with the three left hook chuckers, is the Mosquitoes West team coached by Darcy Pankiw and his wife Sheena, who I'd like to mention have done an awesome job with this young team in their coaching debut. Lefties Peter Horse, Chris Moyah and Tristen Feero pitched two innings each in the game on this past Tuesday against Elizabeth Colony, and with some more practice these young guns are going to have the scouts drooling.

Sharing the back catching duties and both also showing great potential behind the plate, blocking pitches and chucking the ball down to second were Eric Stuparyk and Dustyn Pankiw. In Squirt Girls action, this past Wednesday night, young pitcher Carly Rinas threw a complete game, the Pumas winning over Bonnyville.

The Midget Sox have now been re-tied and are sitting in the top half of the north division of the province and will travel to Edmonton this coming weekend for three games, facing Grand Prairie on Saturday, St. Albert and Vegreville on Sunday.

It could be all over tonight, Chicago could end it all, or we could have a seventh game on Thursday, but either way, by next week at this time hockey is finally done and everyone can go outside and enjoy the ball games or go golfing, fishing or maybe just cut the grass.

And now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week. "When the Stanley Cup is at stake, I can stand any amount of pain." Last week's answer to: "I'd rather fight than score. Scoring is over in a second, but a good fight can last a while and you've got time to enjoy it." Dave Schultz.

Fishing Lake parents

"Mr. Brodziak's comments smack of a segregation plan and the outdated notion that First Nations/ Métis students do not merit full educational opportunities," said Daniels. "What about the children who have already settled into F.G. Miller? Will they not be able to continue with the programs that they have already started? Will they not be able to be a part of the sports teams that they have joined?"

Chalifoux reported that Fishing Lake's local school board held a meeting with its parents last week and that almost all of the parents said that they would not send their children to Heinsburg School. He said that representatives have spoken with Northern Lights school board and were "welcomed with open arms" to attend school in either Bonnyville or Cold Lake. That is the option that most Fishing Lake parents prefer, said Chalifoux.

In response, Brodziak said that the local school board had tried to communicate with Fishing Lake's school board, but that it was difficult to get a long-term commitment from Fishing Lake about which school their children would attend. "We wanted a long-term commitment because we can't be staffing schools at the last moment," he explained. In the past years, Fishing Lake buses have transported students to both Heinsburg and F.G. Miller or to F.G. Miller and to a school in Bonnyville. Only last year did both buses go to F.G. Miller and at that time, the school did not know about the increase in students until the last minute.

A meeting was held last December with the local Fishing Lake School Board. At that time, SPERD representatives, including Brodziak, and the superintendent from the Northlands school board agreed that a survey of the wishes of parents in the area would be completed and the results would be sent to SPERD.

"We had no plans to deny anyone access to F.G. Miller school," said Brodziak. "At that meeting, the local Fishing Lake board said they were going to do a survey in February of all the Fishing Lake parents to find out if they wanted to send their kids to Bonnyville or F.G. Miller or even possibly extending (J.F. Dion) School past Grade 6. We were happy with that because it would allow us to do long-term planning and staffing."

Brodziak said that they didn't get the information requested and that in May, some budget decisions had to be made. The division is having to trim its budget this year and has had to decrease teaching staff. F.G. Miller will have two less staff members.

"Section 45.3 of the School Act says that first and foremost our responsibility is to resident students but beyond that, I will take non-resident students if we have the facilities and the resources available to accommodate those students," said Brodziak. He added that there might still be room for some non-resident students to attend the school but that decisions would be made on a "case-by-case" basis.

Chalifoux said that the Fishing Lake parents were prepared to commit to sending their kids to F.G. Miller and questions why the school would be letting two teachers go at F.G. Miller when they would then have to hire additional staff at Heinsburg with the increase in students from Fishing Lake.

Chalifoux, who graduated from Heinsburg himself in 1984, said that the programming at the school has changed over the years and now has a lot of online learning, which he felt is not the best for Fishing Lake students.

At the end of the day, Daniels noted the community will do what it sees as best for its students, which at this point seems to be to send them to Bonnyville.
